17 MEN INDICTED FOR ZACONET MURDERS All Passengers on Transports

Bench Warrants Issued for Their Arrest-Gangsters Disappear.

DANIELLO

Swann Urges Need for Secreey-Witnesses Waive Immunity—New Mystery.

Seventeen indictments for murder, the largest number growing out of any single homicide or group of killings within gle homicide or group of killings within a group of the source. Silas B. Axtell, argued that as his client was a civilian and the course of the source o gle homicide or group of killings within the was not required to obey orders in the memory of District Attorney Swann or his assistants, were presented to Judge Nott in General Sessions yester-torney, contended that Gerlach was after pawing a half dozen times in the or his assistants, were presented to day as a result of revelations regard- bound while on the army vessel to do as ing the murders of twenty-three men by gangster underlings of the zaconet by gangster underlings of the zaconet was solely one of jurisdiction, he did not padrones of Manhattan. Brooklyn and deal with Gerlach's contention that the Harlem—and the end is not yet in sight. sentence imposed was excessive. He held Only the Baff case approaches it in simply that the court-martial had power Only the Baff case approaches it in the number murdered and involved in None of the men indicted—twelve of to the Circuit Court of Appeals.

them on two counts for the shooting to death of Giuseppi di Marco and Charles MISS BURNS TELLS on July 25, 1916-were among those already in custody, and Judge Nott immediately issued bench warrants for their arrest. It is a question, however, that troubles Judge Swann considerably as to how successful the detectives will be in their quest. The eight or ten padrones, and their three score underlings of gun and knife, have vanished and their old haunts know them no more. In this connection, Judge Swann object, to wipe out this atrocious system of wholesale assassination for whose devotion to the cause knows no hire, has been rendered more difficult bounds, will be back in Washington for whose devotion to the cause knows no by publication of the zaconet story.

These men—the gangsters and the inhuman monsters who control them—are the type that disappear more freearly next week if strong enough. Just at present, she is confined to a sick room are the type that disappear more tre- at her holls, the type avenue, then any other lyn. Despite her weakened condition and are the hardest to get because their her eyes flashed at the mention of the Work Was Back to Italy.

"The most discouraging phase of it totaling. Whether or not our method is is approved is not the question. This is approved is not the question. This is that they work their way over to is approved is not the question. This is the question is our claim just or uncase how difficult it is to get them care whether our methods are approved care whether our methods are approved to would rather not identify anyone its people with injustice. Let the Adspect eted with this case—the men in- ministration so the women of the count to-day, their volume, already try free."

we may have for asking addi- Through her sister, Miss Janet Burns dicted to-day, their veitims, already plans we may have for asking additional indictments in connection with the twenty-three murders mentioned by Daniello."

Detectives Fundero and Votti of the First Branch last hight arrested three members of the National Woman's party and locked them up on charges will attend

Vincenzo Terrenova. 32 years old, and consistence whether to an ice dealer and the second a contraction of 350 East 116th street, who came to the United States fiften years ago, were the first two arrested. Anthony hibition and Government ownership of the content of the United States fiften years ago. Santulli, 30 years old, a cheese manufac-turer of 163 Hester street, was the third Miss Janet Santulli, 30 years old, a cheese manufacturer of 163 Hester street, was the third man arrested.

The Terrenova brothers are charged ship of the coalition movement is in the with "acting in concert" in the killing, hands of J. A. H. Hopkins of New Jer-July 21, 1919, of Giuseppe D'Marco and charges are charged ship of the coalition movement is in the later of the chief aims of the proposed alliance is Bronx, ol, of Izzy was a sucker.

November Grand Jury immediately after a men's number cell at Occomman only three dollar a month interest. And Daniello, alias Ralph the Barber, and during the hunger strike of being mantawo other witnesses had finished telling acled to the bars of the doors and of how the zaconet padrones, directing having worn handcuffs all night. She there gangs of paid assassins had established red handed control of practically all Italian gambling "concess thorities at the fail."

122y he give me da mooney, but only three dollar a month interest. And then I come down here by the draft and then I come down here by the draft and then I come down here by the draft and accept to the bars of the doors and of the I come down here by the draft and then I come down here ney Lewis of Kings.

Lewis Displeased.

Mr. Lowis was said to have threatened to keep the prisoner from the New York District Attorney on the ground that the first leak occurred on the day Daniello was quizzed in the homicide bureau of the Criminal Courts Building, and that, despite the fact that he (Lewis) and the Italian detectives, Puc-(Lawis) and the Italian detectives, Pucciano and Grottano, had safeguarded the confession for nearly two weeks.

Whether or not Mr. Lewis made such threat Assistant District Attorney Henry S. Remand of Judge Swann's staff decided that the question of seventeen including the confession for meanly two weeks.

Mr. Wannaker was for years the Republican leader of the old Fifteenth Assembly district and is one of the best known politicians in the city. He has not taken an active part in political trades of the was too perated on last August for relief from tumor and has been ill since that time.

Mr. Wannaker was for years the hest known politicians in the city. He has not taken an active part in political trades of the was constant to the confession of the was constant to the confession of the conf eided that the question of seventeen in-has not taken an active part in political dictments, with more to follow, was too serious to infle with. So he took the short- Herman W. Beyer about three est and surest cut by obtaining a writt ago. from Supreme Court Justice Goff vesterdirected the officer "commanding at Brooklyn Police Headquarters to produce Rafaelo Daniello at the office of District Attorney Swann." Two ther writs also were issued, one for State Suffrage Chairman Re-Mancini and the other for John Esposite it was on the testimony of these witnesses, all three of whom waived immunity, that indictments were

It is understood that the five indictments around which most mystery is thrown, the ones separated from the group of twelve that charge double killcouncils of the zaconet gauge-probably padrones. That the indictments are additional to the four already returned Brooklyn on the initiative of District Attorney Lewis is inferred from the posifive assurance that none of the seventeen indicted in New York county are within the immediate reach of the police.

Others in Custody.

Another inference is drawn from the appearance of John Mancini yesterday as witness. This is Mancini's first ap-Lewis, like Judge Swann, has in ustody men whose names have not yet appeared. Seven prisoners unidentified, in so far as the public is concerned, are beas material witnesses at the re-

The number involved as murdered by vicinity of graterial witness in the invictim or graterial witness in the intricate ramifications of the murder system maintained by the zaconet padrones tem maintained by the zaconet padrones party, denied last night that she had serves.

The boy's short career in the navy of action and excitement. The number involved as murderer or clearly indicated by approximation, pere were twenty-three murders, of edge. How many more were committed without his knowledge is unrevealed. Of the twenty-three, however, only four vic been accounted for in the indictments already returned Manhattan and Brooklyn. ndictments mentioned without being linked with any particular murder are nes who instigated murder, but did not partici-

ABIE ENJOYS BRIEF COURT-MARTIAL OF CIVILIAN IS UPHELD DREAM OF WEALTH

Amenable to Army Rules.

Under Judge Hand's ruling all persons travelling upon transports are to be considered in the class of "persons accompanying the army of the United States in the field," and are amenable to all regulations laid down by the mili-tary officers in charge of the boats on to act and that its decision could no

SUFF PARTY PLANS

Hopes for Coalition With Progressives and Prohibition-ists at Parley Dec. 6.

Miss Lucy Burns, militant suffragist workhouse at Occoquan home, 126 Greene avenue, Brook-

G. W. WANMAKER NEAR END.

For Years Was One of Leading

Republicans in City. George W. Wanmaker, one of the New York, is critically ill at his home, 258 West Fifty-first street. He was plies to Criticism.

Mrs George Pratt, head of a com-

York State Woman Suffrage party, made public sesterday a letter from Mrs. Whitehouse replying to a newspaper

Whitehouse replying to a newspaper cricle which says that some of the

'I should resent being placed in so symbol of so preposterous a relation was placed on her head at the victory valuable a token.

be tampered with by civil courts.

United States District Court.

was told.

The five year prison term that was Treat's Camp Upton Chums to imposed by an army court-martial upon Pie and Cream on Bor-Charles E. Gerlach, a civilian, for refusal to obey orders while a passenger rowed Feefty Dollar. on a transport was upheld yesterday by Judge Augustus N. Hand in the

BUT JOKE IS NOT ON IZZY

Cruel Captain Is Unwitting Aid to Bronx Pawnbroker Who Became Rookie.

Special Despatch to THE BUN. CAMP UPTON, N. Y., Nov. 30 .- Private Able Einstein leaned over the pine counter of the regimental commissary store thin air Abie quietly hung his right leg question before Judge Hand over his left and rested.

"Have some mosh pie, Louis." Abie begged "Took some most ice cream once, Bennie. Don't I got de money' Ask me, ain't it?"

Louis properly urged took another half of fulcy, flakey apple pie, while Bennie opened a fresh box of brick cream. It was a wild debauch for a trio of rookies in this Army of Freedom, but it was a happy one. Private Able Ein-stein was spending his dough like an oldtime deep sea sait just landed in a very wet port after six straight months on very dry ocean. And Private Abie had no such habit, either by training, experience, race or education
"Able, you gotta lotta mooney, ain't you, Able." Louic asked solicitiously. You gotta a lotta mooney for a solger

"Su'a, su'a. I got feefty dollar." modestly allowed. "Anoder piece of dat apple pie, mista. Bennie took a piece, too. Bennie, don't I got de mooney?"

Turkey Better Than Chicken. "Able can eat some moah, yet I would kill myself dead," Bennie begged off. "Yesterday I don' go home for da thanks give, and I hope I die, Able, if I don't eat a turkey here all by myself once. Honest, I was glad dat Captain he don' let me go by home because all I would have got home was one piece of chicken maybe, and here I get a whole turkey for myself. An now Abie you make me eat fous pieces of pie and a couple o army living. But Bennie, as well, had reached the end of his capacity "Honest, Abie, I would eat from now if I could stand it." Bennie swore. "But along certain streets and avenues of the Fifth Avenue Coach Company for adask me. Abie. can a fish drink dry by West Side. On motion of Mayor Mitchel ditional motor bus franchises in Manhimself an ocean? And besides tell me dat is a lotta money for a soiger The question to be considered will be Tell me. Abre, ain't it?

Able chuckled lovously while specied a fresh bit of cream. Fifty

"Dat fella Isadore Beller, a kike boy

Santulli is charged with "acting in con-cert with six others" in killing Glusopie | Miss Burns was treated by a doctor | Miss Burns was treated by a doctor | Alex yesterola; affermoon. Quietly she | The indictments were returned by the told a stary of having been thrown into lasy's Captain is Unsympathetic. "Oi. oi. I should go by Camp Gordon.

Captain, when Able Ernstein owes me inundred an fefty dollar.' Izzy he say But it don' do no good by dat Captain. He tell Izzy he mus' go, and when Izzy cry dat he come an get de fefty dollar the Captain say de train she don wait for fefty dollar. So Izzy he go by Camp Gordon and I got de fefty. Have seem moah pie, Louie. Bennie, you like meah ice cream?"

State. The Board of Estimate, in refusing to take this action, was guided by an opinion from Lamar Hardy. Corporation Counsel, which stated that the Board of Estimate, in refusing to take this action, was guided by an opinion from Lamar Hardy. Corporation Counsel, which stated that the Board of Estimate, in refusing to take this action, was guided by an opinion from Lamar Hardy. Corporation Counsel, which stated that the Board of Estimate, in refusing to take this action, was guided by an opinion from Lamar Hardy. Corporation Counsel, which stated that the Board of Estimate had no power to repair the resolution of 1847.

View of Mayor Mitchel said:

"In view of the fact that very radical with the captain power to repair the captain for the capt

Bennie shook his head. And then, though guest he was. Bennie threw the first dark cloud into Abie's perfect day. MRS. WHITEHOUSE TO "Don' he write by your Captain, amp Gordon, Able "
"I should vorry, no. I should," Able ACCEPT GOLD CROWN boasted. "If dat guy he writes by my Captain I will stood right up and

"Private Able Ernstein!" shouled a bull neck, red faced buck private orderly, sticking his head into the door.
"Fur the lova mike come on over. The mittee which arranged to present a $1,000 gold wreath to Mrs. Norman De R. Whitehouse, chairman of the New Captain's been wantin' to see ya fur an four. You gotts go down to Camp Gor-don with them other nuts. Hurry up?! Private Able Ernstein, recent host and royal entertainer, la'd down his half box cream and the uneaten half of his suffragists criticise the giving of so fcod no longer tasted the same to him.

Then he suddenly grew slightly pale around the gills, and his lips trembled. false a position," said Mrs. Whitehouse in her letter. "I should hasten to refuse he wailed and fefty dollar. Oi! Oi!"

ship between women who have been working side by side for the increase of FIRST DISABLED MAN RETURNS. The State chairman was entirely taken by surprise, she says, when the wreath Alexander Greenwell, 18, Hero of Dorothy Ash Adopted by Bosto

Long Island City. dinner at the Biltmore. This wreath, as war returned to his home yesterday with an honorable discharge from the United his wife, Mrs. Amelle Pilson Wood, yesterday with an honorable discharge from the United his wife, Mrs. Amelle Pilson Wood, yesterday with an honorable discharge from the United his wife, Mrs. Amelle Pilson Wood, yesterday with an honorable discharge from the United his wife, Mrs. Amelle Pilson Wood, yesterday with the Hotel Bellevue of Boston, Mass. and his wife, Mrs. Amelle Pilson Wood, yesterday assumed the legal adoption of three-year-old Dorothy Ash of this city. New York night at the national suffrage convention in Washington this month. She will accept it, she mays, as an evidence always to be treasured of her good fortune in having been State chairman at the time when the long struggle was rewarded by victory.

Miss Mary Garrett Hay, chairman of was wounded, but it was while serving the conditions under which he was wounded, but it was while serving the conditions under which he was wounded, but it was while serving the conditions under which he was a least sufficient to the conditions under which he was wounded, but it was while serving the convention in Washington this month. States Navy. He is Alexander Greenwell's discharge was a long to the condition of the conditions and the conditions are convention in Washington this month. States well of 574 Steinways avenue. Astoria.

Whitehouse.

Boy of Means Taken for Thief.

Julius Kashalena. 17 years old, of Newton Unper Falls, Mass., was arrested yesterday at the Hotel Lenox upon a request from Needham, Mass. The boy is charged with having stolen $1100.

Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., in the Army.

Central News Photo Service.

Young Vanderbilt upon his enarmy chauffeur to headquarters of The boy's father, Col. Cornelius the Twenty-seventh Division, Camp Vanderbilt of the Twenty-second Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C.

He is a skilful driver and trance into the United States millimade a good record as a soldier in tary service was assigned as an mand.

THREATENS TO TEAR HYLAN'S BUS BID UP CENTRAL TRACKS PROTEST IGNORED

Estimate Board's Refusal to Repeal 1847 Law.

The Board of Estimate yesterday With a generous turn of his hand Abie turned down the request of the joint Hylan, through his representative, Corappealed to Bennie for assistance in conference committee of the Public Ser-spending more of his money in rictous vice Commission and the Board of Esti-votes of the Tammany members the mate that it repeal the city ordinance of Board of Estimate yesterday decided to 1847 granting perpetual franchises to the advertise a public hearing set for Deon until this Christian Santa Claus come New York Central Railroad Company cember 28 on the new offer of the this matter was put over until the first hattar. meeting of the board in January, when "Su'a, su'a, but a joke it is." Able anthe incoming administration will be in vered. "I gotta fefty dollars, and I office.

Refusal of the board yesterds; to repeal this resolution of 1847, which was desired by the joint conference committee in order to test judicially the right of the railroad company to its perpetual franchises, caused Commissioner Hervey, chairman of the joint conference committee, to announce that within twenty-four hours after December 1 the comfour hours after December 1 the committee would take advantage of the mandatory powers granted it under the Ottinger law forcibly to remove the tracks of the New York Central Railroad Company from grade on the West Side.

view of the fact that the afterneon meeting was an adjourned one, to decide the question. President howing and President of the New York Central Railroad Company from grade on the West Side.

delphia by the unethical but most efficient policy of ordering murdered all. "The doctor was gentle enough," she was in the West Side improvement matter by Battalion, he was.

"Give me my hundred and formal will have the power to force the com-

State or by the city, acting on its own authority with permission from the State. The Board of Estimate, in refus-views seem to be held by the incoming administration. I move that the matter be put over until the first meeting in January so that the new Corporation Counsel may have a chance to review the matter and the new Board of Estimate deal with it.

The Mayor's motion was adopted unanimously, with Presidents Connolly and Van Name not voling.

After the action of the Board of Esti-After the artion of the Board of Estimate Commissioner Hervey stated that the joint conference would at once take advantage of the drastic powers conferred upon it by the Ottinger bill. The Commissioner announced that at the meeting of the commission Monday he would introduce a resolution instructing the engineer of the commission to prepare plans, drawings, profiles and other engineering studies necessary in order to carry out the commission's plans for the abolition of grade operation and the change in the railroad company's tracks to a substitute level less dangerous to public health, safety and convenience.

THREE-YEAR-OLD IN LUCK.

Hotel Man.

whose parents are too poor to care

her. The child was born on October 13 The child was born on October 13.

1914, and is unusually pretty and bright.
On February 7 of this year, Miss Charlotte S. Baker, who is associated with Miss Clara B. Spence of the Spence School for Girls at 30 West Flity-fifth atreet, was appointed her general guardian, and Miss Baker would only consent to Dorothy's adoption on condition that she retain her guardianship.

This was agreed to by Mr. and Mrs.
Wood, who yesterday secured an order from Surrogate Fowler allowing them to from Surrogate Fowler allowing them to adopt Dorothy. With their newly adopted daughter they immediately left request from Needham, Mass. The boy his return to the United States immediately left charged with having stolen $1,100. He was elegantly dressed and said that his mother was wealthy and he did not need to steal. The detectives found about will find some other way to serve his rington Hotel, at 161 Madison avenue, ease in his suitones.

Commissioner Hervey Fights Board of Estimate Votes Hearing Dec. 28, Amid tested against the present Board of Es-timate taking any action on this matter. expressing the opinion that it should be left for the incoming administration. A number of other objectors appeared yesterday, but by adjourning the morning comptroller Prenders ast and Presidents Marks, Pounds and Mathewson cas eleven votes in favor of bolding the public hearing, which were enough, in view of the fact that the afternoon meet-

Disorder.

The action of the board yesterday means that the new offer for the franchise made by the Fifth Avenue coach the railroad company and the city came to a mutual understanding concerning to a mutual understanding concerning the West Side improvement matter by the heard and express the low. It also

"Secret," reiterated his charge yesterday,
"You are very wrong about that," put in President Dowling "The meeting in President Dowling "The meeting was not secret, as it had been adjourned n last week only a few people present at the meeting Wednesday and that Lieut. Kennel, the policeman in the Mayor's office, did not know of the meeting Mr. Dowling re-plied. "We don't call up Police Headquarters and tell them when we adjourn. As for there being only a few people present, let me remind you that there were not many present when we adopted the budget of $240,000,000."

PART OF CAPTURED U-BOAT AT BAZAAR Hero Land Gets New Exhibit -To-day Italian Day.

BRING YOUR GIRL AND DANCE'-DYER

but Did Not Stop Armory Affair.

Uniformed Men Hadn't Met Partners.

"On with the dance," or words to that effect, is Brig.-Gen. George R. Dyer's Boys' and other dishonest charity solic-Gen Dyer was blamed cruelly yesterday for adding to the horrors of war by forbidding the soldier boys at the National Service Commission's big Thanksgiving party at the Twelfth Regiment Armory dance floor or, as it is vulgarly known the slangy, 'indulging in the light fan-The misinformed were saving in print yesterday that Gen. Dyer not only stopped the dancers in the middle of their first fling, or just after the third mince pie course, but that he also dis-approved of all soldier dancing parties, approved of all soldier dancing parties, in armories or out of them. The gentleman who should know best what the General thinks on such matters, the same being Gen. Dyer, said last night, however, that he did not personally send out the order which stopped the dancing at the Twelfth Regiment party, inasmuch as he was out of town at the time. Also he added that he did disapprove of dances for the soldiers where the women dances for the soldiers where the women partners were strangers to the men, and therefore disapproves of the dancing at the party in question, but that he heartily approved of dances, provided the parties were under military authority and the soldier boys brought their own somen friends to dance with

No Reflection Intended

"My objection to the dancing follow-ing the Twelfth Regiment Armory din-ner Thanksgiving night," explained Gen. Dyer, "must not be taken, it is almost needless to say, as casting the slightest reflection upon the young ladies present. My opposition was based upon common sense grounds, and you will find, by the way that it is supported not only by other army officers interested in the men, but by at least one woman on the mmittee which directed the dinner at the Twelfth Regiment Armory.

"In the first place, I didn't approve of say, 1,000 girls being sent to the ar-military authority and each soldier must be privileged to bring his own dancing partner, an arrangement which, it goes without saying, would be infinitely more pleasurable to the men (ol. Denny Issued Order.

thing like a soldie. And he was in the city. Youngers and plant day of the imprisonment that Miss Burns was foreithy feel of the content of t *nddenly dollar and jes as Abie was startin' over to get de mooney hes Captain he come to get de mooney hes Captain he come by the barracks and he holler 'Isadore Beller' any Izay he say. Yes sah, Isa'dore Beller' I am. Captain.'

"You leave in one-half hour for Camp Gordon, Private Beller' dat Captain he say. 'Pack up and catch de train: ansay. 'Pack up and catch de train: an permitted Workers in the Service Commission started in day, in view of the attitude of t New York company to compete.

The meeting was further enlivened by a spat between Mr. Sheehan and President Dowling. Mr. Sheehan, who on dent Dowling. Mr. Sheehan, who on Wednesday at the special meeting of the Wednesday at the special meeting of the Such affairs could be held from time to IMPRISONED. CHARGES MAID. When Mr. Sheehan said there had been Suit Presents Suburban Servant Problem From New Angle.

The proplem of keeping servants in the suburbs has not been solved. Mar Miller, formerly a chambermaid earning $23 a month at the home of Adolph Prince, at Stern's Park, Freeport, L. I., has gone to court to show that her employer went to the length of imprison-ment to keep her at his house. In an amended complaint, in which she asks for $5,000 damages, filed at the County Clerk's office yesterday the plaintiff says.

"Defendant and other persons afore-said in his employ refused to release plaintiff, but on the contrary then and there, without any probable or reason-able cause therefor, illegally and un-lawfully, without a warrant or author-ity of law, and against the will of the The British tank at Hero Land is to have a rival. To-day there will arrive at the Grand Central Palace part of a state Grand Central Palace part of a have occurred on the evening of June plaintiff, held the plaintiff imprisone

HUNDRED PER CENT. The Sun Calendar. BOYS ON TRAVELS

General Approves Principle, Some Arrests of Fraudulent Charity Collectors May Be Made To-day.

ORDER ISSUED BY DENNY PROSECUTOR GETS COINS

Officers Condemn Fact That Men Who Have Taken in Big Sums by Solicitation Dodge Swann.

Several arrests of "Hundred Per Cent. motto, and this despite the fact that liters are looked for to-day, or at least within a few days, unless, as District Miltorney Swann said last night, the southern Kansan in the case of the men sought have escaped from New foggy with light rain; slight change of temperature; winds, egsterly; average hundred in regard to the fraudulent collection of the several arrests and indict.

M. 20.18. Thursday evening to shake a leg on the ing and the several arrests and indictments, Mr. Swann said, have had a marvellously purifying effect. "Scarcely a train has left the city carried a passenger who will not return for some time, the passenger being, of course, one of our charity boys. You may hear of them again, for crooks of a certain profession saidon change of the passenger being.

Loose ends of the investigation rapidly are being taken in Yesterday the prose-cutor obtained a weighty package, which was all one man could lift, from the American-Italian Society for the Relief of the Blind, Mutilated and Orphans of the War, with headquarters at 43

Investigation of Michael J. Delahunty.

Invest to have been its manager, told the Dis-trict Attorney that Delahunty absconded with $1 500 Col. John J. Byrne of the Ninth Regiment Coast Artillery, stationed at Sairly Hook, fold the District Attorney yesterday that he had not authorized Wheaton Service Corporation to sign his Inited States uniforms. Besides, what name to letters sent the letters, of which possible pleasure could either the girls for contributions. The letters, of which contributions of the soldiers get out of hours of dandard with partners they never had seen part: "The officers of this command are part to the part to the partner of the partner part: The officers of this command are raising this money, and every cent re-ceived by them will be dispensed for the "Nobody has the interests of the soldiers more at beart, on duty or off, than I. I've had them to dinner at my own home and I'm glad and feel it a privilege always to add anything I can to their pleasures. But dances such as the focus planned for on Thanksgiving night. one planned for on Thanksgiving night do not give them measure.

"If the good ladies interested in that particular particular party or any others wish to get up dances for the solders! I shall be glid to cooperate with them in their affairs. But such dances must be under a said to have been an agent for the solders. But such dances must be under a said to have been an agent for the solders. But such dances must be under the solders and the solders are solders. But such dances must be under the solders are solders. But such dances must be under the solders are solders. But such dances must be under the solders are solders, as the solders are solders. But such dances must be under the solders are solders as the solders are solders. But such dances must be under the solders are solders. But such dances must be under the solders are solders. But such dances must be under the solders are solders. But such dances must be under the solders are solders. But such dances must be under the solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders are solders. But the solders are solders are solders are solders are solders a soldier Wheaton corporation.

MUST PROVE WHITRIDGE DEBTS

Surrogate's Order.

Col had been submitted to establish the in- | partmer

Broker Who Died Last April 17 Remembered Relatives. James De Wolf Cutting, head of the

James De Woir Cutting, head of the brokerage firm of Cutting & Co. who died April 17, 1917, left a net estate of $471.276. According to the appraisal announced yesterday the total assets consisted of real estate at 135 East Fifty-seventh street, valued at $35,000; personal property, $83,842; and stocks and bonds valued at $614,043. The Federal International Conference of the Property of the Prop eral inheritance tax will be $20,000 Most of the estate is left to relatives of Mr. Cutting. Evelyn Bird Burden. Gwendolyn B. Downes and I. Townsend Burden, three cousins, living at 23 East Eighty-first street, received legacies of $50,000 and one-third of the jewelry of $50,000 and one-third of the jewelry of the decedent's mother, valued at $12,000 | Supreme Court yesternay by Juliana Cutting of 565 Park avenue—Mary C. Cumnock of 111 East Thirty—inth arrest and Madeline C. Hibbs of highest award for such a court in the second of the such as the second of the such as the second of the such as the second of the secon ceive life incomes of $85,024 and one-third of the furniture and jewelry not otherwise disposed of.

WILLS AND APPRAISALS.

The British tank at Hero Land is to have a rival. To-day there will arrive at the Grand Central Palace set of the said promises.

The cause for action is alleged to have a rival. To-day there will arrive at the Grand Central Palace set of the said promises.

The cause for action is alleged to have a courred on the evening of June 20, 1916, three months after plaintiff in time for the celebration of Italian day of the coefficial Italian day of the coeff

THE WEATHER.

For eastern New York and southern New England, rain to-day; fair and colder to-morrow; moderate south winds shifting to northwest.

winds shifting to northwest.

For New Jersey, rain to-day, fair and colder to-morrow, moderate southwest to northwest winds.

For northern New England, rain or snow to-day, warmer; generally fair and coldent o-morrow; moderate to fresh south winds shifting.

For western New York, rain or sees to-day, colder in the west portion; generally fair and colder to-morrow.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The pressure was low over the country east of the Mississippi with a storm centre on the coast of North Carolina and another over the upper lake regions. The winds on the coast were increasing and becoming high around Harteras. Rain was failing in the lake regions, the Ohio and Tennesses Valley, the east Gulf and all the Atlantic Nates except northern New England. There was third storm moving south from British Columbia, attended by rain in the series as third storm moving south from British Columbia, attended by rain in the series.

It was warmer east of the Mississippiercept in Mains, where sero temperature were recorded. It was colder, with temperatures below freezing, in upper Missisippi and Missouri Valleys, thence south is southern Kansas.

In this city the day was cloudy as formy with light rain; night change of

Barometer 30 12
Humidity 70
Wind—direction E,
Wind—velocity 14
Weather Cloudy
Precipitation None

13 M ... 12 Highest temperature, 44, at 4 P. Lowest temperature, 25, at 2 A. Average temperature, 41.

MINIATURE ALMANAS States Coast and Geodett Standard Time Standard Time.
Side A.M. Sun sets. 4 10 P.X.
Moon rises. 117 P.M.
High WATER THIS DAY
Hook 9 P.A.M. Gov. Island 2 10 A.X.
Hell Gate. 11 21 A.M.
Hook 2.38 A.M. Gov. Island 2 14 A.X.
Hell Gate. 5 15 A.M.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS

Missouri (Br.) Yaque (Am)

EVENTS TO-DAY.

A.M. Bird walk of the National Associate industrial Revietles, Mail Pentral Period M., neather permitting. Danger to, enlisted men as Property of the National Review of the National R

"The Life of the Plant, I The late of the Pint.
C. Schmucker America. Viscon Seventy seventh street and seventh for the West. Unstrated.

"Austria Hungary the William He Raymond. Choper Institute Majing was and Fourth avenue flustrate and Production of Electrical in America by Prof. Uric Dahleren. New York Full Labrary, 221 East Fiftweights steet. lustrated
"Lapital Labor and holists at Don racy, by Prof. dathes Walter view.
M. C. A. & West First store Generation of the Lar.
Prof. J. Loring Armond, Plants & Sec.
14ath Street, Bear Williams

141th street, near Williams
Brons, Blussrated
Prison Reform Video Brons Samue Roches form Rivington and Ridge street $17.500 FOR LOSS OF ARM for Injury to thild. A verduet of $17,500 pur 19 Supreme Court yesternas to it a made by a court in the York ward S. Young, at 250 Fa t 1 in a house owned by the Mer Company. Harry S. Austin of GEORGE W. TEWKSRURY, sied August 11. gate of the place had be of t counsel for the plaintiff, so